BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY
PURCHASE AND SALE AGREEMENT

Buyer shall determine within the Contingency Period whether it wishes and is able to assume, as of closing, all of the foregoing leases, contracts, and agreements which have terms extending beyond closing, and to determine which leases, contracts and agreements that Buyer does not wish to assume or take subject to. Buyer shall be solely responsible for obtaining any required consents to each assumption. Seller, however, shall cooperate with Buyer in securing any necessary consents. Seller shall transfer the leases, contracts and agreements as provided in Section 13 of this Agreement.

If, at or prior to the end of the Contingency Period, Buyer notifies Seller that there are certain leases, contracts or agreements that Buyer wants terminated as a condition to Buyer's purchase, Seller shall have 10 days from the date of Buyer's notice to attempt to terminate each such lease, contract or agreement on terms satisfactory to Seller. Buyer shall incur no liability for any such termination. Unless Seller notifies Buyer by the end of the 10-day period that Seller has been able to terminate each such lease, contract or agreement on terms satisfactory to Seller, this Agreement shall terminate and the earnest money shall be returned to Buyer, unless Buyer on or before the end of the 10-day period waives the termination requirement and proceeds to close.

b. Lease of Premises by Seller. If Seller is the owner of the premises on which all or a part of the business is located, and Buyer is not purchasing the premises as part of this Agreement, Seller shall deliver to Buyer within 10 days after mutual acceptance a proposed form of lease for the premises. Buyer and Seller shall then have until the end of the Contingency Period to agree upon a final form of lease. If Buyer and Seller cannot agree on a final form of lease by the end of the Contingency Period, then Buyer or Seller may thereafter terminate this Agreement and the earnest money shall be returned to Buyer.

c. Employment of Key Personnel. Buyer shall determine within the Contingency Period whether it wishes to attempt to negotiate acceptable employment contracts with any employees of Seller that Buyer wishes to hire after closing. Buyer shall not contact any employees of Seller without Seller's permission to do so. If Buyer's purchase is made contingent on hiring any employees, and Seller refuses Buyer permission to contact those employees or if Buyer cannot negotiate a mutually satisfactory agreement at least ten (10) days prior to closing with any employee that Buyer identifies during the Contingency Period, then Buyer may terminate this Agreement and receive a refund of the earnest money.

d. Physical Inspection. Seller shall permit Buyer and its agents, at Buyer's sole expense and risk, to enter the premises at reasonable times to conduct inspections concerning the business and premises including without limitation, the structural condition of the leasehold improvements, all mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems, equipment, hazardous materials (limited to a Phase 1 audit only), pest infestation, or other matters affecting the feasibility of the business and premises for Buyer's intended use. Buyer shall schedule any entry onto the premises with Seller in advance. Buyer shall not perform any invasive testing without obtaining the Seller's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Buyer shall restore the personal property, premises and leasehold improvements to the same condition they were in prior to inspection. Buyer agrees to indemnify and defend Seller from all liens, costs, claims, and expenses, including attorneys' and experts' fees, arising from or relating to entry onto or inspection of the premises by Buyer and its agents. This agreement to indemnify and defend Seller shall survive closing. Buyer may continue to enter the premises in accordance with the foregoing terms and conditions after removal or satisfaction of the inspection contingency only for the purpose of re-sale or to satisfy conditions of financing.

e. Schedule of Assets. Within 10 days after mutual acceptance of this Agreement, Seller shall prepare a schedule setting forth all property to be transferred to Buyer at closing, whether real, personal, tangible, or intangible. Within 10 days after receipt of this schedule, Buyer shall approve or disapprove the schedule. If Buyer approves the schedule and Buyer and Seller have not agreed on an allocation of the purchase price in Section 3 above, then Buyer and Seller shall agree on an allocation of the purchase price among the various assets (equipment, furnishings and fixtures, goodwill, etc.). If they are unable to agree in good faith within 10 days after Buyer's written approval of the schedule, or if Buyer fails to give Seller written approval of the schedule within the 10 day period, either party may terminate this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, Seller is not transferring and Buyer is not assuming any accounts payable or other liabilities of Seller, and Seller shall indemnify and hold Buyer harmless from all liabilities of Seller related to Seller's operation of the business. This agreement to indemnify and defend Seller shall survive closing.

9. INVENTORY. Within 10 days after mutual acceptance of this Agreement, Seller and Buyer shall agree in writing on a preliminary inventory setting forth the count and assigned unit values for all of Seller's inventory. If Seller and Buyer cannot agree on a preliminary inventory, then this Agreement shall terminate and the earnest money shall be refunded to Buyer. The inventory shall be valued at the lower of Seller's cost for any such item or the fair market value of such item. The inventory to be sold should consist only of items of quality or quantity commercially usable and saleable in the ordinary course of business. At the close of the last business day prior to closing, Seller and Buyer shall conduct a final inventory for the purpose of adjusting the inventory count (but not the assigned unit values). The final inventory count shall not exceed or be exceeded by the preliminary count by more than 10 % percent (ten percent if not filled in), and the final inventory value (the final inventory count per item times the assigned unit values per item) shall be added to the purchase price described in Section 1 above.

10. EMPLOYMENT MATTERS. Seller shall be responsible for all employment obligations of the business prior to closing, including wages, taxes, accrued vacation and sick pay, and benefits for all employees and/or contractors engaged by Seller for the business prior to closing. Unless otherwise agreed, all employees shall be terminated as of closing and Buyer shall be responsible at and after closing for only those employees or contractors that Buyer hired.

11. OPERATIONS PRIOR TO CLOSING. After mutual acceptance of this Agreement and until closing, Seller shall continue to operate the business in the ordinary course; shall not sell, pledge, encumber or otherwise transfer any of the property (except for inventory in the ordinary course); shall maintain the assets of the business in at least the same condition existing on the date of mutual acceptance of this Agreement, damage by casualty excluded; shall not enter into, modify, or terminate any contracts, leases or other agreements (except in the ordinary course of business), or make capital expenditures in excess of $5,000 without first obtaining Buyer's consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld; shall not increase the compensation, benefits or distributions of any of the employees or principals of the business; and shall pay before delinquency all taxes, assessments, and other government charges regarding the business, its operations and property.
